Note 1
The details shown on this preliminary house siting plan (PHSP) represent our best endeavours to interpret and communicate the various housing setback requirements and likely service locations in an easy reference and summarised form. This PHSP has been created with the best intentions of trying to assist prospective buyers and their builders understand the lot. The PHSP does not provide comprehensive details of the standards and constraints associated with siting a house on this lot; prospective buyers and builders should contact the approving authority and make a determination on this issue. Accordingly, the actual permitted house siting may vary from what is indicated here. Additionally, the services are based on plans which may vary once construction is completed.

Note 2
The PHSP is not a statutory disclosure document.
